Class News

- In ELA, the children will be continuing to work on independently creating their own opinion writing piece on a topic they chose. We will also be reading and writing words with the spelling pattern vowel consonant vowel or VCE.
- In Math, we will begin our new unit "One Hundred and Beyond". This week we work with numbers 100 and beyond. We will also group and count by tens and ones. In addition we will use place value tools and sketches to add and subtract within 100.
- Spring Activities - If your child has spring extracurricular activities coming up, I would love to support them. Please send me any game schedules or performance times and I'll do my best to attend!
