Class News

- In ELA, we are continuing to read and write about what makes a pet special. We will also be creating and writing about our own monster pets. In addition, we will start reading and writing words with short vowels.
- In Math, we are continuing to engage in exploring part-part-whole relationships within 20. This includes finding the total or sum of two groups, or finding an unknown part of a whole group. We are also estimating and measuring objects with nonstandard units such as popsicle sticks and unifix cubes.
- Just a reminder that your child's library field trip permission form and library card application are due by Wednesday, October 4th. They were sent home last week. Please let me know if you need another copy. I will contact chaperones by Friday. Thank you!
- Though Friday is a half day, the children will still have a snack time.
